- are equipped with video facilities that:
- (c) enable appropriate persons at the Australian location to see and hear the witness give the evidence; and
 - (d) enable appropriate persons at the overseas location to see and hear appropriate persons at the Australian location.
- (2) In subsection (1):

appropriate persons means such persons as the court considers appropriate.

279.4 Application of laws about witnesses

A person who gives evidence under a direction is taken to give it at the courtroom or other place in Australia where the court is sitting.

Note: This section has effect, for example, for the purposes of laws relating to evidence, procedure, contempt of court and perjury.

279.5 Administration of oaths and affirmations

An oath or affirmation to be sworn or made by a witness who is to give evidence under a direction may be administered either:

If, in a prosecution for an offence against this Part, it is necessary for the prosecution to prove that a person knew, or was reckless as to whether, a substance or plant was a controlled drug, controlled plant, controlled precursor, border controlled drug, border controlled plant or border controlled precursor, it is not necessary for the prosecution to prove that the person knew, or was reckless as to, the particular identity of the controlled drug, controlled plant, controlled precursor, border controlled drug, border controlled plant or border controlled precursor.

Note: This section applies to a prosecution of an ancillary offence relating to this Part as well as to prosecution of a primary offence against this Part. This is because of:

- (a) sections 11.2, 11.2A and 11.3 (which treat certain combinations of physical and fault elements relating to this Part as being offences against this Part); and
- (b) section 11.6 (which has the effect that a reference to an offence against this Part includes a reference to an offence against section 11.1 (attempt), 11.4 (incitement) or 11.5 (conspiracy) that relates to this Part).

300.6 Recklessness as to nature of substance or plant sufficient for offence of attempt to commit an offence against this Part

Despite subsection 11.1(3), for the offence of attempting to commit an offence against this Part, recklessness is the fault element in relation to any of the following physical elements of the offence attempted:

Section 300.6

- (a) that a substance is a controlled drug (a physical element of an offence against Division 302 or 305 or section 308.1, 309.2, 309.3, 309.4, 309.7 or 309.8);

Section 310.4

Section 312.1

Division 312—Working out quantities of drugs, plants or precursors

312.1 Working out quantities of drugs and precursors in mixtures

- (1) If an alleged offence against this Part involves a quantity of a controlled drug in a mixture of substances, the prosecution may prove the quantity of the controlled drug involved:
 - (a) by proving that the mixture contains that quantity of the pure form of the controlled drug; or
 - (b) if such a quantity is specified, in regulations made for the purposes of item 1 of the table in section 301.10, 301.11 or 301.12, for the controlled drug in a mixture—by proving that quantity of the mixture.
- (2) If an alleged offence against this Part involves a quantity of a controlled precursor in a mixture of substances, the prosecution may prove the quantity of the controlled precursor involved by proving that the mixture contains that quantity of the pure form of the controlled precursor.
- (3) If an alleged offence against this Part involves a quantity of a border controlled drug in a mixture of substances, the prosecution may prove the quantity of the border controlled drug involved:
 - (a) by proving that the mixture contains that quantity of the pure form of the border controlled drug; or
 - (b) if such a quantity is specified, in regulations made for the purposes of item 1 of the table in section 301.10 or 301.11, for the border controlled drug in a mixture—by proving that quantity of the mixture.
- (4) If an alleged offence against this Part involves a quantity of a border controlled precursor in a mixture of substances, the prosecution may prove the quantity of the border controlled precursor involved by proving that the mixture contains that quantity of the pure form of the border controlled precursor.

312.2 Working out quantities where different kinds of drugs, plants or precursors are involved

- (1) This section applies if a person is charged with a single offence against this Part that involves:
- (a) trafficking in more than one kind of controlled drug; or

 - or
 - (f) importing or exporting more than one kind of border controlled drug or border controlled plant; or
 - (g) possessing more than one kind of unlawfully imported border controlled drug or border controlled plant; or
 - (h) possessing more than one kind of border controlled drug or border controlled plant reasonably suspected of having been unlawfully imported; or

- (a) the quantity of the drugs or plants is a trafficable quantity if the sum of the requisite fractions of the trafficable quantity of each of those drugs or plants is equal to or greater than one;
 - (b) the quantity of drugs, plants or precursors is a marketable quantity if the sum of the requisite fractions of the marketable quantity of each of those drugs, plants or precursors is equal to or greater than one;
 - (c) the quantity of drugs, plants or precursors is a commercial quantity if the sum of the requisite fractions of the commercial quantity of each of those drugs, plants or precursors is equal to or greater than one.
- (3) For the purposes of this Part, requisite fraction means:
- (a) in relation to a trafficable quantity of a controlled drug or controlled plant, the actual quantity of the drug or plant divided by the smallest trafficable quantity of the drug or plant; or

 - (b) if such a quantity is specified, in regulations made for the purposes of item 1 of the table in section 301.10, 301.11 or 301.12, for the controlled drug in a mixture—on the basis of the quantity of the mixture.

Section 312.2

- (5) If this section applies in relation to a border controlled drug in a mixture of substances, the requisite fraction of a marketable or commercial quantity of the border controlled drug may be calculated:
- (a) on the basis of the quantity of the border controlled drug in pure form; or
 - (b) if such a quantity is specified, in regulations made for the purposes of item 1 of the table in section 301.10 or 301.11, for the border controlled drug in a mixture—on the basis of the quantity of the mixture.

- (a) at the time of the conduct constituting the offence, the person was under a mistaken but reasonable belief that the conduct was justified or excused by or under a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory; and
- (b) had the conduct been so justified or excused—the conduct would not have constituted the offence.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in paragraph (a) (see subsection 13.3(3)).

313.3 Alternative verdict—offence not proved

If:

Section 313.4

- (a) in a prosecution for an offence against this Part, the trier of fact:
 - (i) is not satisfied that the defendant is guilty of the alleged offence; but
 - (ii) is satisfied, beyond reasonable doubt, that the defendant is guilty of another offence against this Part; and
 - (b) the maximum penalty for the other offence is not greater than the maximum penalty for the alleged offence;
- the trier of fact may find the defendant not guilty of the alleged offence but guilty of the other offence, so long as the defendant has been accorded procedural fairness in relation to that finding of guilt.

313.4 Alternative verdict—mistake as to quantity of drug, plant or precursor

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) an offence against this Part (other than Division 307) is prosecuted; and
 - (b) the offence involves a commercial quantity or a marketable quantity of a controlled drug, controlled plant, controlled precursor, border controlled drug, border controlled plant or border controlled precursor; and

- (2) If:
 - (a) the defendant proves that, at the time of the alleged offence, he or she was under a mistaken belief about the quantity of the drug, plant or precursor; and
 - (b) if the mistaken belief had been correct, the defendant would have been guilty of another offence against this Part; and
 - (c) the maximum penalty for the other offence is less than the maximum penalty for the alleged offence;the trier of fact may find the defendant:
 - (d) not guilty of the alleged offence; but
 - (e) guilty of the other offence.

Section 313.5

Note: A defendant bears a legal burden in relation to the matter in paragraph (2)(a) (see section 13.4).

313.5 Alternative verdict—mistake as to identity of drug, plant or precursor

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) an offence against this Part (other than Division 307) is prosecuted; and
 - (b) the offence involves a controlled drug, controlled plant, controlled precursor, border controlled drug, border controlled plant or border controlled precursor; and
 - (c) the trier of fact would, apart from this section, have found the defendant guilty of the offence.
- (2) If:
- (a) the defendant proves that, at the time of the alleged offence, he or she was under a mistaken belief about the identity of the drug, plant or precursor; and
 - (b) if the mistaken belief had been correct, the defendant would have been guilty of another offence against this Part; and
 - (c) the maximum penalty for the other offence is less than the maximum penalty for the alleged offence;
- the trier of fact may find the defendant:
- (d) not guilty of the alleged offence; but
 - (e) guilty of the other offence.

Note: A defendant bears a legal burden in relation to the matter in paragraph (2)(a) (see section 13.4).

- Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years, or 120 penalty units, or both.
- (2) Without limiting paragraph (1)(b) or (1A)(b), that paragraph is taken to be satisfied if:
- (a) the conduct referred to in paragraph (1)(a) involves a number of transactions that are structured or arranged to avoid the reporting requirements of the Financial Transaction Reports Act 1988 that would otherwise apply to the transactions; or
 - (aa) the conduct involves a number of transactions that are structured or arranged to avoid the reporting requirements of the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 that would otherwise apply to the transactions; or
 - (b) the conduct involves using one or more accounts held with ADIs in false names; or
 - (ba) the conduct amounts to an offence against section 139, 140 or 141 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006; or
 - (c) the value of the money and property involved in the conduct is, in the opinion of the trier of fact, grossly out of proportion to the defendant's income and expenditure over a reasonable period within which the conduct occurs; or
 - (d) the conduct involves a significant cash transaction within the meaning of the Financial Transaction Reports Act 1988, and the defendant:
 - (i) has contravened his or her obligations under that Act relating to reporting the transaction; or
 - (ii) has given false or misleading information in purported compliance with those obligations; or

Section 400.10

- (da) the conduct involves a threshold transaction (within the meaning of the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006) and the defendant:
 - (i) has contravened the defendant's obligations under that Act relating to reporting the transaction; or
 - (ii) has given false or misleading information in purported compliance with those obligations; or
- (e) the defendant:
 - (i) has stated that the conduct was engaged in on behalf of or at the request of another person; and
 - (ii) has not provided information enabling the other person to be identified and located.
- (4) Absolute liability applies to paragraphs (1)(b) and (c) and (1A)(b) and (c).
- (5) This section does not apply if the defendant proves that he or she had no reasonable grounds for suspecting that the money or property was derived or realised, directly or indirectly, from some form of unlawful activity.

Note: A defendant bears a legal burden in relation to the matter in subsection (5) (see section 13.4).

400.10 Mistake of fact as to the value of money or property

- (1) A person is not criminally responsible for an offence against section 400.3, 400.4, 400.5, 400.6, 400.7 or 400.9 in relation to money or property if:
 - (a) at or before the time of dealing with the money or property, the person considered what was the value of the money or property, and was under a mistaken but reasonable belief about that value; and
 - (b) had the value been what the person believed it to be, the person's conduct would have constituted another offence against this Division for which the maximum penalty, in penalty units, is less than the maximum penalty, in penalty units, for the offence charged.

Example: Assume that a person deals with money or property that is the proceeds of crime. While the person believes it to be proceeds of crime, he or she is under a mistaken but reasonable belief that it is worth $90,000 when it is in fact worth $120,000.

That belief is a defence to an offence against subsection 400.4(1) (which deals with money or property of a value of $100,000 or more). However, the person would commit an offence against subsection 400.5(1) (which deals with money or property of a value of $10,000 or more). Section 400.14 allows for an alternative verdict of guilty of an offence against subsection 400.5(1).

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (1) (see subsection 13.3(3)).

- (2) A person may be regarded as having considered what the value of the money or property was if:
- (a) he or she had considered, on a previous occasion, what the value of the money or property was in the circumstances surrounding that occasion; and
 - (b) he or she honestly and reasonably believed that the circumstances surrounding the present occasion were the same, or substantially the same, as those surrounding the previous occasion.

400.11 Proof of certain matters relating to kinds of offences not required

In a prosecution for an offence against a provision of this Division, it is not necessary to prove the existence of any fault element in relation to any of the following:

- (a) whether an offence may be dealt with as an indictable offence;
- (b) whether an offence is an indictable offence;
- (c) whether an offence is a Commonwealth indictable offence;
- (d) whether an offence is a foreign indictable offence;
- (e) whether an offence is a State indictable offence;
- (f) whether an offence is an Australian Capital Territory indictable offence;
- (g) whether an offence is a Northern Territory indictable offence.

Section 400.12

400.12 Combining several contraventions in a single charge

- (1) A single charge of an offence against a provision of this Division may be about 2 or more instances of the defendant engaging in conduct (at the same time or different times) that constitutes an offence against a provision of this Division.
- (2) If:
 - (a) a single charge is about 2 or more such instances; and
 - (b) the value of the money and other property dealt with is an element of the offence in question;that value is taken to be the sum of the values of the money and other property dealt with in respect of each of those instances.

400.13 Proof of other offences is not required

- (1) To avoid doubt, it is not necessary, in order to prove for the purposes of this Division that money or property is proceeds of crime, to establish:
 - (a) a particular offence was committed in relation to the money or property; or
 - (b) a particular person committed an offence in relation to the money or property.
- (2) To avoid doubt, it is not necessary, in order to prove for the purposes of this Division an intention or risk that money or property will be an instrument of crime, to establish that:
 - (a) an intention or risk that a particular offence will be committed in relation to the money or property; or
 - (b) an intention or risk that a particular person will commit an offence in relation to the money or property.

400.14 Alternative verdicts

If, on a trial for an offence against a provision of this Division (the offence charged), the trier of fact:

- (a) is not satisfied that the defendant is guilty of the offence charged; but

- (b) is otherwise satisfied that the defendant is guilty of another offence against this Division for which the maximum penalty, in penalty units, is less than the maximum penalty, in penalty units, for the offence charged;

the trier of fact may find the defendant not guilty of the offence charged but guilty of the other offence, so long as the person has been accorded procedural fairness in relation to that finding of guilt.

400.15 Geographical jurisdiction
